JUDGE STELK'S COMMANDMENTS

Popular judge of the Speeders' Court Lays Down a Decalogue for Auto Owners and Drivers.

Judge John Stelek of the Speeders' court has asked Ald. Joseph L. Novak to introduce an ordinance into the council providing that a booklet containing the speed laws be given by the city clerk with each car license. Judge Stelek will endeavor to present the same plan to the state legislature so that every motorist will receive a copy of the state laws with his license number.

In all probability the book will be arranged in the form of "commandments" to speeders. The principal ones will be ten in number, as follows:

- "Thou shalt not:
- "1. Drive more than twenty-five miles an hour on any country road.
- "2. Drive more than twelve miles an hour on the outskirts of any city or village.
- "3. Drive more than fifteen miles an hour in any residence district.
- "4. Drive more than ten miles an hour in business districts.
- "5. Drive more than six miles an hour around corners.
- "6. Drive more than six miles an hour while approaching railroad crossings.
- "7. Turn to left of a street car standing or moving and go between the car and the curb while passengers are getting on or off.
- "8. Park longer than the law allows.
- "Thou shalt:
- "9. Stop at all boulevards and railroad crossings.
- "10. Drive only when in perfect mental and physical condition."

SIDEWALK ORDINANCE NEEDED

City Council Should Regulate Conditions in the Loop.

The City Council should pass an ordinance prohibiting people from loitering on the sidewalks in the Loop. Pedestrians should be compelled by law to keep to the right. As things are at present, without any sort of regulation, some of the down town streets are almost impassable.

Clean out the barnacles, Mayor Thompson, and breathe easier in the City Hall.
